

The Position

Working under close supervision, the Employment & Training Worker I is the entry/trainee level in the Employment & Training Worker series. An Employment & Training Worker I provides employability services to eligible applicants of local social service agencies and public assistance programs; applies program regulations and procedures; assesses employment potential and barriers that interfere with securing employment; identifies needs for social and health services and makes referrals; uses an automated system to maintain and monitor participants' records and generate reports; and performs related work as required. As requisite skills and knowledge are developed, greater independence and the full scope of responsibility are exercised. Employees are expected to promote to Employment & Training Worker II after one year of satisfactory performance at the trainee level.
